PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S

PROCLAMATION APPOINTING A DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

Important Decisions of the Supreme Court Affecting National Banks and Insurance Companies.

WASHINGTON, October 31.—The following is President Cleveland's proclamation designating Thursday, November 24th, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer:

A PROCLAMATION.

By the President of the United States:

It has long been the custom of the people of the United States, on a day in each year, to suspend their ordinary pursuits, to give thanks to God for the many mercies which have been bestowed upon them, and to invoke His continued care and protection. In observance of such custom, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate Thursday, the 24th day of November instant, to be observed and kept as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. On that day let all our people forego their accustomed employments and assemble in their usual places of worship, to give thanks to the mercies of the universe, for the continued enjoyment of the blessings of a free government, for the renewal of business prosperity throughout our land, for the triumph which has rewarded the labor of those who till the soil, and for our progress as a people in all that makes a nation great. Let us also remember the grateful hearts of those who have been shielded from harm through His mercy, be turned in sympathy and kindness toward those who have suffered through His visitation. Let us also, in the midst of our thanksgiving, remember the poor and needy with cheerful gifts and alms, so that our services may, by deeds of charity, be made acceptable in the sight of the Lord.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 31st day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and tenth.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the President, T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

Prince Louis, Napoleon Calls on the President.

WASHINGTON, November 1.—Prince Louis Napoleon called at the White House today and paid his respects to the President. He was accompanied by his private secretary and Mr. Albert de Forester, Secretary of the Italian Legation. The presentation were made by Secretary Bayard. The President received them in the morning. There were no addresses. The President and the Prince conversed together for about fifteen minutes. The party went to Baltimore at 10 o'clock this morning and returned at 8 o'clock this afternoon. This evening the Prince is the guest of Col. Jerome Bonaparte.

Important Supreme Court Decisions.

WASHINGTON, November 1.—A decision was rendered by the Supreme Court of the United States today in a series of cases known as the Pacific National Bank cases, brought here by appeal from the United States Circuit Court for the District of Massachusetts. These were suits instituted by the Receiver of the insolvent Pacific National Bank of Boston, against the stockholders of that bank to enforce personal liability for an assessment of 100 per cent. upon the shares of both the original and the increased capital stock of the bank standing upon its books in their names. The stockholders maintained when the cases were tried in the court below, that they were not liable on the share of increased capital stock held by them for the reason that the increase of the capital of $50,000 to $100,000 was unauthorized and illegal, and they were not parties to it. The receiver contends that the stockholders are liable upon their shares of increased capital stock; that the defenses at law and the alleged ground of relief in equity are alike insufficient, and that the judgments and decrees of the Circuit Court in favor of the receiver must be affirmed in all the cases, and it is so ordered. This decision covers ten cases in this court and several pending suits in the courts of Massachusetts. The opinion was delivered by Justice Matthews.

Another decision was rendered by the Court today in the original case of the Phoenix Insurance Company et al against Charles E. Dyer, Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin. This case, which is a petition to this Court for a writ of prohibition, arises out of an action instituted by the Phoenix Insurance Company and the other plaintiffs now set this Court to grant a writ of prohibition to restrain the Judge of the District Court from further proceeding, on the ground that that Court is without jurisdiction to grant the relief sought by the owners of the stock. The Court holds that there is nothing in the admiralty rules which warrants the jurisdiction of the District Court of Wisconsin, and that the case is clearly one for a writ of prohibition. The writ will, therefore, be issued. The Court does not, however, decide the question whether or not the statutory limitation of liability extends to the damages caused by the fire question so as to be enforceable in an appropriate court of competent jurisdiction. Opinion allowed by Justice Blainford.

Motion were made in the United States Supreme Court today to advance and hear together immediately after the February recess all the cases now on the docket of this court which involve the great telephone controversy. Counsel said to the Court that the records in these cases comprise 25,000 octavo pages of printed matter and that the argument, if all the cases be heard together, will occupy a week or more.

The Court took the motion under advisement. The records in these cases are the most voluminous ever presented to the Court. Copies enough of the record to supply all the justices in the since case of the People Telephone Company vs The American Bell Telephone Company were filed in the case of the District of Massachusetts; 657 and 668.

The Molecular Telephone Company vs the American Bell Telephone Company, appeal and cross appeal from the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York; 1092; the Clay Commercial Telephone Company vs the American Bell Telephone Company, appeal from the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania; 1164; the People Telephone Company vs the American Bell Telephone Company, appeal from the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York.

A NEW VIEW OF CONSUMPTION.

And One Which Appeals to Common Sense—Many Curable Cases.

Medical Science. "Many persons die of consumption who could easily be cured," says Dr. S. Q. Clark, of Watertown, N. Y., "if they would go at it right. I have a new view of the disease. Consumption is not always of lung origin."

"How so?" "What is it then?" "Many cases of consumption are secondary, but the best practitioners refuse to attribute it entirely to inheritance or the weather. If a person lives in the most favorable climate in the world and has any tendency to lung weakness, if any conditions exist in the system, that climate, however favorable, will not prevent development of the disease. The disorder in such cases is only a secondary symptom in the lungs of some other ailment, and can never be cured until approached through its source."

"If you dip your finger in acid you burn it, do you not?" "Yes."

"If you wash this burnt finger every second with the acid, what is the result?" "Why, constant inflammation, festering and eventual destruction of the finger."

"Precisely! Now, then, for my method, which commends itself to the reason and judgment of every skilled practitioner. You know certain acids are developed in the body. Well, if the system is all right these acids are neutralized or utilized and carried out. If the system is run down by excess, anxiety, continual exposure or overwork these acids accumulate in the blood."

"If there is any natural weakness in the lung this acid attacks it, having a natural affinity for it, and if the acid is not neutralized or passed out of the system it burns, ulcerates, and finally destroys the lung. Is this clear?" "Perfectly! But how do you prevent the accumulation of these acids in the system?"

"Irregularities of the liver and kidneys create this excess of acid and the supply can be cut off only by correcting the wrong action of these organs. The kidneys alone should carry out in quantity, in fact, enough of this acid, which, if left in the blood, would kill four men. When the stomach, the liver and the kidneys are all conspiring to increase the acid, the wonder is that weak lungs resist death as long as they do!"

"But you have not told us how you would treat such cases."

"No, but I will. The lungs are only diseased as an effect of this acid or kidney poison in the blood. After having exhausted all authorized remedies to correct this acid condition, I was compelled, in justice to my patients, to use Warner's Safe Cure, though a proprietary remedy, it is now recognized, I see, by leading physicians, by presidents of State Boards of Health and insurance physicians, as a scientific and the only specific for those great organs in which over 90 per cent. of diseases originate are sustained."

"Is this form of treatment successful?"

"It is wonderfully so, and for that reason I am only too willing that you should announce it to the world of consumptives."

Note by the Publishers: We have received the above interview from H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y., with the request that we publish it for the good of suffering people. In a footnote to this letter they say:

"The experience of Dr. Clark is not strange to us. In our correspondence we have found that many thousands of people are suffering from what they think is Consumption, whereas the real difficulty is with the liver and kidneys, proven by the fact that when these organs are restored to health by the use of Warner's Safe Cure the consumption disappears, and so does every other ailment."

We insist upon what we always have claimed, if you remove the cause, the system will soon perfect the work already begun. Mrs. Rev. Dr. Theodore Wolf, of Gettysburg, Pa., wife of the editor of the Lutheran Quarterly, said her friends thought her fate gone with consumption, but after a thorough treatment with Warner's safe cure, she says: "I am perfectly well." We can cite thousands of such cases, but one is enough. If you publish the above article, kindly send us a worded copy."

We gladly give place to the article, for if we can in any way stay the ravages of consumption, which carries away so many millions yearly, it is our bounden duty to do so.—[Poa.]

MRS. A. T. STEWART'S WILL

SHE PROVIDES HANDSOMELY FOR HER KINSFOLK

And Their Children and Leaves a Large Sum to the Diocese of New York.

New York, November 1.—The will of Mrs. Cornelia M. Stewart, widow of the late millionaire dry goods merchant, was filed for probate today by ex-Judge Horace Russell, Mr. Henry Hilton's father-in-law. Clauses were immediately issued to the heirs and next of kin, made returnable November 13th.

In the instrument Mrs. Stewart bequeaths $20,000 per year during life to her brother, Charles F. Clinch; to each of her sisters, Anna, Emma and Julia, she leaves an annuity of $10,000 a year; to her niece, Sarah N. Smith, she leaves $250,000; to Cornelia S. Butler she leaves $200,000; to each of her children, Lawrence and Charles S. Butler, $50,000; to Kate A. Smith, $200,000; to each of the remaining children of Sarah N. Smith, namely, Louisa, Ella, Bonnie and James, $100,000; to each of the children of her deceased sister Louise, formerly the wife of Charles E. Butler, namely, Rosalie, Helen, Virginia, Lillian, Maxwell and Prescott, $50,000. All the real estate, real and personal, the bequests to Charles F. Clinch, now of Paris, and Henry Hilton, of this city.

None of the legacies are to be payable until three years from the final probate of the will, nor any of the annuities until six months after such probate.

The executors to the will are Charles J. Clinch and Henry Hilton and the witnesses to the instrument are Henry E. Davies, James Henry Work and Edward B. Hilton.

The will is dated July 5, 1877. In a codicil to the will she revokes the bequest to Henry Hilton of one-half of her residuary estate and instead bequeaths to him one-half of the residue of her property and estate in trust, to collect, receive, hold, manage, control, sell and apply the same to the following purposes: To erect, build, equip, furnish and maintain a cathedral of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Garden City, L. I., and to supply it with all that is necessary to make it a free church and a cathedral for the Protestant Episcopal Church of the diocese of Long Island, N. Y. To erect, build, equip, furnish and maintain a free church and a cathedral for the Protestant Episcopal Church of the diocese of Long Island, N. Y. To erect, build, equip, furnish and maintain a free church and a cathedral for the Protestant Episcopal Church of the diocese of Long Island, N. Y.

By another codicil Mrs. Stewart authorized Mr. Henry Hilton in regard to the above purposes, and he is to appoint his successor, provided, however, that the said trust shall not continue longer than the lives of Kate A. and James C. Smith, named in the will. By another codicil, dated May 31, 1885, Mrs. Stewart bequeaths to Sarah N. Smith and her heirs one equal part of the residue of the estate granted to her nephew, Charles J. Clinch. She gives $25,000 to be distributed by the executors among her household servants living with her at the time of her death. The last codicil is dated November 30, 1885.

After stating that the cathedral at St. Paul's school at Garden City has been completed and endowed revokes all former clauses to the will and codicil thereto, except that the trustee is empowered at his discretion to build and endow a seminary of learning for women as described in previous codicils and to erect such other institutions and buildings connected with the cathedral as will be necessary. Absolute title to the property is vested in the legatees to convey and transfer the property in accordance with the provisions of the will and codicils.

Tried in the Crucible.

About twenty years ago I discovered a little sore on my cheek, and the doctors pronounced it cancer. I have tried a number of physicians, but without receiving any permanent benefit. Among the number were one or two specialists. The medicine they applied was like fire to the sore, causing intense pain. I saw a statement in the papers telling that S. S. S. had done for others similarly afflicted. I procured some at once. Before I had used the second bottle the neighbors could notice that my cancer was healing up. My general health had been bad for two or three years—I had a hacking cough and spit blood continually. I had a severe pain in my breast. After taking six bottles of S. S. S. my cough left me and I grew stronger than I had been for several years. My cancer has healed over all but a little spot about the size of a half dime, and it is rapidly disappearing. I would advise every one with cancer to give S. S. S. a fair trial.
